WIPE OUT BULLYING

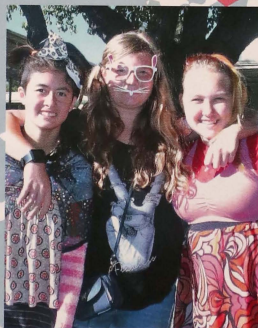

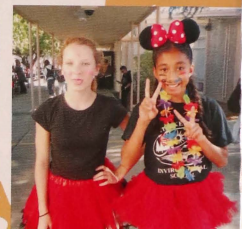

*"Choose
being kind
over being right
and you'll be right
every time."*

Richard Carlson

"I pledge allegiance to myself
and to who I want to be.
Because I can make my dreams
come true if I believe in me.
I pledge to keep my dreams alive
and be all I can be.
I know I can and that's because I pledge to stay drug free."

chose me."

Fandom Day 2017

"We all have our own interests. Different music. Different clothes. Different lives. We all like something different and that's okay. No matter what it is, it is valid. We are human, we tend to disagree. Life would be boring, liking everything everyone else does. We live our lives in the moment and enjoy what we can. Accept yourself for who you are and what you enjoy. If it makes you happy, If it makes you feel okay, If it makes you, YOU ...it's valid."

2016-2017

BLOOD, SWEAT, TEARS & HUNDREDS OF MEDALS

IT'S WHAT THE OLYMPIC SPIRIT WAS MADE OF IN RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL.

11,237 OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST ATHLETES from all over the globe gathered in August to pursue lifelong dreams and compete for Olympic glory. There were firsts, as Rio was the first South American city to host the Olympic Games. There were records broken — the United States earning 121 medals — surpassing the previous record of medals earned (which they also held). There were downfalls in the form of injuries, controversies and losses. But there were, of course, tremendous and victorious triumphs, celebrations of nations coming together, demonstration of character and pure grit and moments of relishing in hard work, determination, talent and tenacity — true athletic prowess at its finest.

1. HELEN MAROULIS, the first American woman to earn Olympic gold in wrestling, defeated opponent Saori Yoshida of Japan.

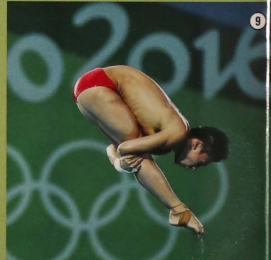

2. NEYMAR DELIVERED A HOME TEAM VICTORY, earning Brazil soccer gold after scoring the winning penalty kick, 5-4 against Germany.

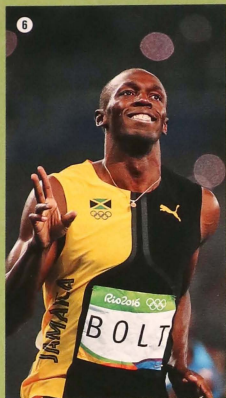

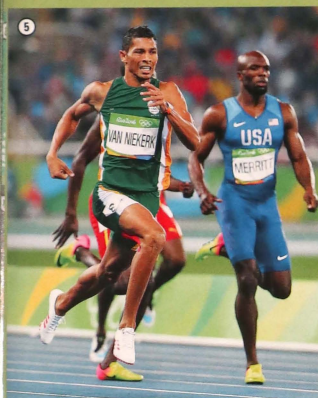

DREAMS & DEFEAT

3. AN UNFORTUNATE MISSTEP for French gymnast Samir Ait Said resulted in a lower leg break during the men's qualifying round.

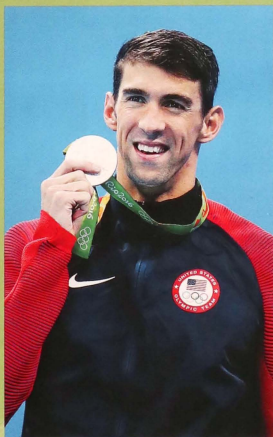

4. THE 100-METER HURDLES were dominated by Americans: Brianna Rollins, Nia Ali and Kristi Castlin, who finished first, second and third, respectively.

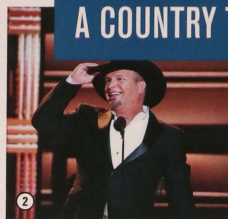

5. SOUTH AFRICA'S WAYDE VAN NIEKERK broke a 17-year-old record in the 400-meter race, earning gold with a time of 43.03 seconds. He largely credited his 74-year-old coach, former sprinter and long jumper, Anna Botha. 6. AFTER ACHIEVING A "TRIPLE-TRIPLE" by winning all three sprint titles at three consecutive games, Jamaican track and field star Usain Bolt declared his desire to be the greatest. 7. DEEMED THE "FINAL FIVE," Aly Raisman, Madison Kocian, Laurie Hernandez, Gabby Douglas and Simone Biles won nine medals at the Rio Olympic Games, breaking the previous record of eight medals shared by the 1984 and 2008 teams. The U.S. women's gymnastics team celebrated victory over all rivals with a total of 8,209 points. Russia fell to second place, while China came in third. 8. TWO DISTANCE RUNNERS COLLIDED during the women's 5,000 meter event. Abbey D'Agostino of the United States and Nikki Hamblin of New Zealand helped each other and finished the race with times of 17:10.02 and 16:43.10. 9. CHEN AISEN'S performance led China to their seventh gold medal in diving at the Rio Olympics. 10. THE UNITED STATES MEN'S OLYMPIC BASKETBALL TEAM won gold in the final knockout round with a victory over Serbia and a score of 96-66. This was the team's third consecutive gold medal.

US SWIMMERS: AN UNSTOPPABLE CLASS OF ATHLETES

Ledecky broke her own record in the 800-meter freestyle, becoming the first woman to sweep the 200, 400 and 800 freestyle races since 1968. Manuel tied for gold in the 100-meter freestyle, making her the first African American woman in history to win an individual Olympic swimming medal.

ERA OF VARIED OPINION & VAST DIVIDE

THE 2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION was a particularly unusual political journey from the beginning.

Seventeen major Republican candidates entered the race in early 2015, making it the largest presidential primary field for any political party in American history.

By May 3, only three of those Republican candidates remained: Donald Trump, Ted Cruz and John Kasich. Trump became the presumptive nominee on May 4, and, on July 15, officially announced via Twitter that Mike Pence was his chosen running mate.

On the other side, opinion polls predicted Hillary Clinton as the front-runner Democratic presidential nominee; she was up against Bernie Sanders, Martin O'Malley and Lincoln Chafee. Clinton and Sanders took turns winning important caucuses and primaries, but on July 12, Sanders withdrew and officially announced his endorsement of Clinton.

On July 22, she announced Tim Kaine as her running mate. Both Trump and Clinton were formally nominated during the respective Republican National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio from July 18-21, and the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania from July 25-28.

Clinton focused on raising middle class incomes and women's rights, while Trump focused on sizable income tax cuts, illegal immigration and the repeal of the Affordable Care Act. The two discussed these issues, and more, at the first of three presidential debates on September 3, which became the most-watched debate in American history, with more than 80 million viewers.

On Nov. 8, 2016 Trump became president-elect with 306 electoral votes. Republicans maintained control of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Some turned violent as protesters gathered alongside his supporters at Trump Towers in New York and Chicago and chants rang throughout that stated "Not my president!"

3. FORMER PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA delivered his farewell speech on Jan. 10 in Chicago. During the televised address, the crowd cheered, "Four more years!" and at one point, Obama became tear-eyed while thanking his wife, Michelle, in a four-hour emotional moment. 4. BEYONCÉ AND JAY-Z officially endorsed Democratic nominee Clinton at the "Get Out the Vote" concert in Cleveland, Ohio on Nov. 4.
5. THE DAY AFTER THE INAUGURATION millions of women and men worldwide marched to take a stance on prominent political discussions, especially those of women's rights. These marches and demonstrations eventually led to even greater conversations around how important of a civil responsibility it is to vote.

SHIFTING GROUND AND STANDING ROCK

WIDE OPPOSITION OF THE DAKOTA
ACCESS PIPELINE LED TO DISORDER.

THERE ARE TWO SIDES to every story. This time, the battle was over the Dakota Access Pipeline that would transport oil from the Bakken oil fields of North Dakota to the plains of Illinois — if only its last mile and a half of 1,700 miles could be completed. The center of opposition was the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, who occupied land near the development site. Thousands of protesters and many Native American tribes also opposed the project. Energy Transfer Partners claimed the construction of the pipeline would lead to greater economic development, as well as increased safety and efficiency, but the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe argued the development would destroy ancestral land, threaten their water supply and be an overall burden to residents of the tribe. Environmental activists named more consequences, such as man-made climate change, should construction of the pipeline move forward. Following the lengthy battle, President Donald Trump signed executive orders that advanced approval of the pipeline only four days following his inauguration.
